Dear Stephen,

THANK YOU from the entire Phamaly family!

Phamaly is one of the most unique theatre companies in the country, providing opportunities for theatre artists with all nature of disabilities – physical, cognitive, intellectual, and emotional – to share and expand their artistic skills through professional theatre.

Phamaly impacts the lives of many, including the artists onstage and the diverse array of audience members who experience our shows. As one patron from this year's production of Annie commented:

"It is a truly a humbling experience to be part of the audience watching these wonderful actors. It just makes you laugh, smile, tear up, and then start all over again. I am so impressed with the ability of any actor to bring out those emotions in people...and the ability to deliver such amazing performances. ... Stop and remind yourself that we are all in this together and whatever we can do to support and understand each other is what this is all about...or should be."

This past year Phamaly performed, taught, and fostered community with nearly 20,000 adults and children – with and without disabilities – across Colorado. We could not do it without your support.

We look forward to an exciting 2018 season with new adventures and opportunity for impact. We hope you will join us, and thank you again for making it possible for Phamaly to deepen its artistic and human impact.

With the deepest gratitude,

Regan Linton
Artistic Director/Acting Executive Director
